MEETING OF THE BOARD.

Several Changes To Be Made in Fire Department—Other Matters.

An adjourned meeting of the board of aldermen was held last night, all present except Bogart.

The report of the committee appointed to draft a bill to present to the legislature for authority to issue bonds for buying or erecting waterworks, street improvement, purchase or erecting of electric light plant, completing sewerage system, building a city hall and market house and making other improvements to the amount of $300,000, provided that the tax rate shall be no greater than at present. The report of the committee was adopted and the mayor and city attorney appointed on the committee to investigate and ascertain what changes, if any, were necessary to be made in the city charter.

The special committee to which were referred the matters of difference between the members of the fire department, filed its report and recommended that the house in front of the engine house be floored and celled for the use of the hook and ladder company, and that this company be furnished with a driver; and that, as soon as practicable the mules which are now used in drawing the truck to fires, be exchanged for a pair of good horses, and that the appropriation to the Eagle Hose Co., be increased to $30 per month for the maintenance of horse, and payment of driver and house rent, making this appropriation equal to that of the other companies. The committee further recommended that the tapper used by the South Side Hose Co., to locate the vicinity in which a fire occurs, be exchanged for an electric indicator.

The committee wished it understood, that in recommending to the board that the city pay the house rent of the Eagle Hose Co., and repair the building in which the hook and ladder truck is stored, it was in favor of this only as a temporary arrangement and that it was convinced that the city should erect, upon a conveniently located lot, a building capable of accommodating both these companies, and housing their apparatus properly, and recommending that if the legislature granted permission to assure bonds that at the same time they ask to be given the right to submit an issue to the citizens allowing the city to bond itself in the sum of six thousand dollars for the above purpose. The report was adopted.

The Cape Fear Manufacturing company asked the board to allow it to erect an additional story to one of its buildings, already erected. Permission was granted.

It's Getting High.

Work on Wharton & McAlister's office building is on in earnest again today and the work of roofing the structure will soon begin. As soon as this is done the building will be ready for the plasterers, who will have a big job—the plastering of one hundred rooms. Mr. Brooks, who is superintending the work says, that, making all allowance for bad weather during February and March, the building will probably not be finished before the first of June.

All Pleased With It.

Every one who has purchased "Our Country in Peace and War" is much pleased with it as such testimonials as the following show:

VOTE LOOKED FOR TODAY.

Friends of The Nicaraguan Canal Bill Confident.

DETAILS OF COURT-MARTIAL

Will Not Be Published Today—Eagan Will Be Arrested Late Today or Sometime Tomorrow.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 18.—A vote on the passage of the Nicaragua canal bill is looked for in the senate late today. The friends of the measure are confident that two-thirds of the senators favor its adoption. While it may not command so large a support as this, there is no doubt about its passage.

Adjutant General Corbin went to New York this morning. Before leaving he said the details of the Eagan court-martial will not be made public today. General Eagan is at his office. The order for his arrest will not be served until late today or tomorrow.

Col. Weston, of the commissary department, is expected, will relieve General Eagan.

The house is considering bills reported from the committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

The senate foreign relations committee today ordered a favorable report on the nomination of Choate. Senator Davis announced that he would move executive sessions tomorrow to consider the treaty.

Bacon, of Georgia, took the floor of the senate on the Vest resolutions. At the conclusion of his speech consideration of the Nicaraguan bill will be resumed.

As Receiver of the Bank of Guilford—Judge Bryan's Instructions.

Judge Bryan yesterday confirmed the appointment of J. S. Cox, as permanent receiver of the Bank of Guilford. Judge Bryan instructed Receiver Cox to advertise for all those who hold claims against the bank to present them immediately; to make collection as fast as the notes fall due and report to him at the February term of court here.

Judge Bryan decided that the bank should hold all moneys deposited on the day before the failure was announced, as business was transacted in the usual way. The receiver has no discretion in the transaction of business, more than to carry out the instructions of the court.

Col. S. H. Boyd has been appointed auditor of accounts.

THE LEGISLATURE.

A Brief Synopsis of Yesterday's Proceedings.

The senate met at 10 o'clock and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Skinner.

A message from Governor Russell was read in which the governor gave his reason for the dismissal of J. W. and S. Ocho Wilson from the railroad commission. On motion of Mr. Hairston it was ordered that 200 copies of the message be printed and distributed among the members of the legislature. The evidence as given by the governor will be taken under immediate consideration by the committee.

Reports of committees were favorable as to bills to change the name of the South Atlantic Life Endowment Company; to amend chapter 113, laws of 1895, and unfavorably as to a bill to refund certain money to Mt. Pleasant college.

A petition from the citizens of Tryon for the appointment of additional justices was referred to the committee.

Bills were then introduced, after which the calendar was taken up and a resolution in regard to an inquiry as to the payment of money out of the state treasury passed final reading, as did also a bill to repeal chapter 51, laws of 1897, with regard to the fishing with certain nets in Albemarle river and substituting "80" for "20" feet.

Upon motion of Senator Brown, Senator Justice, chairman of the judiciary committee, was authorized to employ a clerk to do from the organization of the judicial committee.

The senate adjourned at 11:30 a. m.

IN THE HOUSE.

The house session was opened with prayer by Elder P. D. Gold, of Wilson.

The governor's message relative to the removal of the Wilsons was received. A number of bills were introduced, after which the following bills passed:

To repeal the charter of Dudley, Wayne county. To allow the people of Morganton to vote on the question of the issue of bonds for purchase of electric light plant. To amend chapter 345, acts 1897, by striking out the "French Broad" river from its provisions.

There were long discussions of the bill for the better government of Hertford county, giving it five new commissioners, the latter to have the right to refuse to accept bonds in surety companies.

Snipes, of Hertford, (republican) spoke in opposition to the latter bill. He said he knew what he had to say was useless as the majority had him "where the hair is short." He said the purpose of the bill was plain—to take away all power of election by the people of Hertford. He said he was willing to vote with the democrats to amend the school law in Hertford.

Isaac H. Smith, (negro republican) said that Snipes made a great deal of saying that all the present officers of Hertford are white men, and that no doubt if a negro official were in power Snipes would vote with the democrats. Smith said that as for himself he wanted wealth and intelligence to rule and that it was to the advantage of the negro to have this state of things. He said he spoke for 500,000 people, his race; that the democrats speak for over 1,200,000; but that he did not know how many Snipes represented. (Great laughter and applause.)

Hampton said he desired to enter his protest against this bill and declared it was to put in power men who were repudiated at the late election.

Hampton said he was with the democrats in amending the public school laws.

Robinson, of Cumberland, said the bill did not propose to oust any officers in Hertford, if they gave proper bonds, and they ought not to hold office unless they did give proper bonds.

Gilliam, of Edgecombe, said the committee had found, after careful consideration, that the present officers are incompetent and a thorough hearing had been given all sides in the matter.

Rountree, of New Hanover, said the republican plea for "fair treatment" came with very poor grace from representatives of a party which during the past four years had enacted such infamous legislation as that which took charge of Wilmington.

Ray, of Macon, said he had proposed, as a matter of conscience, to vote against the bill, but he found the republicans divided upon, and that he would vote for the bill.

Petree, of Stokes, said he was unable to see the slightest reason for asking for this legislation. He declared that the bill was in a spirit of resentment.

Council was applauded when he said he had come here from his people to

WASHINGTON CITY GOSSIP.

Senator Daniel Much Pleased With His Cuban Trip.

RUMOR THAT ALGER WILL RESIGN

As a Result of The Miles-Eagan Controversy—He Didn't Want Gen. Eagan Court-Martialed.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., January 18.—Senator Daniel, of Virginia, who went for short visit to Havana, and other points in Cuba, accompanied by his wife and son, has returned to Washington. The family of the Senator are now located at their home on nineteenth street, northwest. Senator Daniel is much pleased with his visit to Cuba, and his personal contact with the people of the island, and the observations he was permitted to make during the short trip, will be a great aid to him in coming debates in the senate relative to the course to be followed in dealing with the future of our new possessions. The trip was also much enjoyed by Mrs. Daniel. As stated the other day, the party came to Washington by way of Florida, and while in the state they visited Tampa, Ocala, and several other of the winter resorts. The Senator was delighted with his trip through the state, and both himself and Mrs. Daniel were much benefited by the genial climate.

A rumor, which gained some credence, was spread through Washington yesterday. It was to the effect that Secretary Alger, as a result of the Miles-Eagan controversy would resign the secretaryship of war. While nothing definite can be gathered, owing the refusal of the members of the cabinet to discuss such subjects, and because of the secretary's positive refusal to say anything, there is an impression that there may be something in the rumor. It is stated that it would be logical for the secretary of war to take this step, if it is true that the president has over-ridden him in the matter of Egan's trial by court-martial, which it is understood was not wanted by the secretary. Inquiry was made at the war department during the afternoon, but the officials professed to know nothing as to the rumor, or as to the secretary's intentions.

The funeral of Mrs. Knowlton, who died suddenly Saturday last at Pinehurst, North Carolina, took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Mrs. Knowlton's daughter, Mrs. Browne, wife of General William Henry Browne, accompanied the remains of her mother to Washington, and will remain in the city for several days. General Browne, who is said to be in quite poor health did not come to Washington with his wife.

The Brown-Swanson contested election case will be called up in the house of representatives tomorrow. It was the original intention of Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana, who has charge of the case to call it up yesterday, but in view of a general desire among the members to proceed with the consideration of the naval personnel bill, he yielded. The case is the last Virginia case on the calendar. There remain two contested election cases from South Carolina, those of Mr. Stokes, whose opponent died about six months ago, and that of Mr. Talbert.

Members of the North Carolina, and Virginia delegations in the house are interested in securing the appropriation for the improvements of Dismal Swamp canal. It is thought by several of the members that the appropriation will form an item of the coming river and harbor bill.

The postoffice department has ordered special service discontinued at Antio, Cleveland county, from Newhouse, North Carolina.

answer the call for help from the negro-ridden counties of the east.

Curtis, of Buncombe, ridiculed Snipes speech. He said if he went along with a negro to steal a hog he would not when he got to the fork of the road say to the negro: "Mr. Negro, this hog is all mine." (Great laughter.) He said that Snipes had yesterday told the committee that half the negroes in Hertford had voted the democratic ticket. He also ridiculed Petree for attacking so vigorously the acts of the last legislature.

Hampton demanded the yeas and nays. The vote was yeas 85, nays 28. Craig introduced a resolution raising a joint committee of 5 to take into consideration the message of the governor as to the Wilsons (railroad commissioners), investigate it thoroughly and have power to send for persons and papers. The resolution was adopted.

THREATENED DESTRUCTION.

Floods Wrecking Property at Cleveland Ohio.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Cleveland, Jan. 18.—The fall of the big Wilson avenue bridge over Cuyahoga river is threatened by the flood. Much valuable property in the manufacturing districts is in danger. The dam at Kingsbury Run broke at 9:30 and the north end of the bridge yielded slightly and great crevasses opened in the earth five hundred feet going out. The engineers have abandoned all hope of saving the bridge and a collapse is imminent.

The bridge cost $350,000. Early this morning the immense dam restraining the water in Huron Pond gave way. The only outlet for the water accumulated from a week's rain was a small culvert under the bridge. Efforts have been made since last night to strengthen the bridge, but to no avail.

Later—The Wilson avenue bridge has given completely away.

France-German-Russian Alliance.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.
Paris, Jan. 18.—It is reported today that Czar Nicholas, of Russia, has invited President Faure, of France, and Emperor William, of Germany, to meet him in the spring on Rivera. It is said the czar will spend two weeks there. It is believed that the two rulers have accepted the invitation to visit him and this naturally arouses talk of a France-German-Russian alliance.

Panama Railway Strike.

THE DISPENSARY SYSTEM.

Public sentiment in Greensboro seems to be crystallizing against the present form or plan of handling the whiskey question, and measures and means are being discussed. In this connection the dispensary system has been suggested. In order that our people may know something of the practical results obtained where that system has been tried we yesterday printed statements from reliable and responsible parties in towns where the system is in use. We here quote again the statement of Mr. Q. K. Nimocks, of Fayetteville, a prominent, influential and highly responsible man, which fully covers and answers the question from almost every point of view:

"The Cumberland county Dispensary started business July 1st, 1897 without a cent of aid from the town or county. For the 18 months in which it has been in operation, it has made net profits for the town and county to the amount of $10,221.70. Of this sum each has received $3,600, or a total of $5,200. The balance is in net stock on hand. The debt of about $4,000, incurred in starting the Dispensary, has been paid down to $1,500, with $700 now in bank to apply on same.

"The Dispensary has paid 50 per cent more to the public treasury of the town and county than was formally received from license from twelve saloons. Public morals have improved nearly in the same ratio. It has also improved business.

"The officials all say that drunkenness and crimes resulting therefrom have decreased at least 33 per cent since the Dispensary has been in existence. The quantity of liquor consumed is at least one-third less.

"Owners of tenant dwellings say that rents are much more easily collected from the lower classes. They account for this from the fact that the Dispensary closes at sundown and day laborers do not have an opportunity to spend their earnings for liquor, as in the case of the licensed saloons."

Now, take the first part of Mr. Nimocks' statement, which deals with the question from a purely business point of view. The man who says he is in favor of licensed saloons because we must have money to run the public schools should favor this plan because the source of revenue would be greater, and there is no moral difference in taking license money for that purpose, which is a part of the profits, and in taking all the profits. There is Mr. Nimocks' statement (and he is a member of the dispensary board) that the dispensary has paid 50 per cent more to the public treasury of the town than was formerly received from twelve saloons.

Then look further at the statement and see what the moral effect has been. He says "morals have improved nearly in the same ratio." This is the strongest point in favor of the system with those who really desire to check the evils of intemperance. Any system that will result in decreasing drunkenness and crime arising therefrom 33 per cent in the city of Greensboro, even though the revenue to the city be reduced in like proportion, will be a God-send to the place.

Again, Mr. Nimocks says the system has improved business. That is a logical and perfectly natural result. Where one-third less money is spent for liquor there is one-third more to be spent for clothing, food, fuel and other comforts of home. The dispensary closes at sundown and the day laborers do not find it so easy to spend their earnings in nightly carousals, and consequently it is easier to fill the larder, pay the rent and lay up something for the proverbial "rainy day."

Again, no liquor is allowed to be drunk on the premises. This eliminates a feature which costs those who will drink many a dollar as it does away with the habit of barroom treating. Those who have been "through the mills" and are accustomed to taking "a night off with the boys" know what that means.

To sum it up: It increases revenue; it improves morals; it reduces drunkenness and crime; it improves business. These results have been proven by actual experiment and practice.

It is certainly a great pleasure to the Telegram to hear anything that shows a progressive and energetic spirit on the part of the citizens of Greensboro and Guilford county. In this connection it is with especial pleasure we learn that a number of public spirited and progressive citizens of the county have agreed to subscribe liberally to the work of macadamizing the public roads in their sections of the county. That shows not only progress, but that those citizens have level heads. It is to be hoped that this important movement will be given the recognition it deserves.

Monument to Nash and Davidson.

A joint resolution was introduced in the house yesterday by Mr. Winston setting forth that Congress had appropriated $10,000 for the erection of monuments to Generals Francis Nash and William Lee Davidson, but had not chosen a location for the monuments, and raising a joint committee of five to take charge of the construction and location.

The Telegram suggests that the Battle Ground company take steps to have these monuments erected on the historic battle field near this city.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chilli Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

To Our Friends

and Patrons:

In closing our books for the year 1898 we find we have quite a number of small accounts which in themselves are trivial, but she aggregate would make quite a nice sum. While we wish to be obliging and courteous to our customers and try to please all, we must insist upon getting our business upon more of a Cash Basis.

To open so many small accounts involves quite an amount of book keeping and consumes too much valuable time. This can be avoided by paying cash for your bundle when delivered and do away with all possibility of disputed accounts.

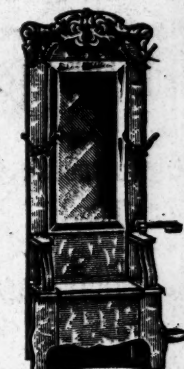

Thanking our customers for their patronage in the past, and extending to each and every one the greetings of the season.

Respectfully,
The Steam Laundry,
John M. Dick, Proprietor.

An Inducement to Trade.

We have always tried to keep ourselves before the public in a straightforward way.

Our statements have been of the nature to have you understand that we are selling goods for a profit.

We have been since the commencement of our business, and are now, in a position to meet any legitimate competition—but as the season grows shorter the demand grows less—that we may create trade and prevent carrying through the summer season a lot of winter weights, you may expect from now until the spring opens, the lowest prices on all such goods as suits, overcoats, underwear, etc.

You might cut this out.

A Family History.
This morning Mrs. Frank Alford received an interesting package by express from Dr. C. L. Alford, of Logansport. It contained the material for a history of the Alford family from the time of the landing of three brothers of the name who came over in the second trip of the Mayflower and settled at Salem in 1634, a member of the family afterwards founding Alford, Mass., and who is recollected by a lady now over 100 years old who has written a letter to Dr. Alford. The English branch of the family have traced their genealogy back to the eighth century. Mrs. Frank Alford will copy the manuscript and the accumulated matter will later be published under the direction of Dr. Alford, who has visited every branch of the family in the United States.—Logansport (Ind.) News.

The Dr. C. L. Alford mentioned above is a cousin of the late Dr. M. H. Alford, whose family now reside on Davis street, this city.

The Minstrels Tonight.

Fields and Hanson's Minstrels, who hold the boards at the academy of music tonight, arrived this morning in their own car, attached to the 8:10 northbound local. The street parade at 11 o'clock today was fine. The company has a large band, of which every member is a professional musician. The music was some of the best ever made by a minstrel in Greensboro. A hot time at the academy tonight.

Some Facts About Our ### MANTELS.

1. They are of handsome designs. We "pick out" the best that a number of the best factories in the country can offer. We have a number of new and handsome designs now in stock.
2. They are made of selected woods. There is a great deal of difference in woods—even in oak woods. Let us show you the difference between a piece of plain, coarse grained oak, and a piece of handsome, quartered oak.
3. The workmanship and finish are faultless. Made and polished like a piano.
4. Grates and tiles to harmonize with the mantels and all to harmonize with the finish of your room.
5. The people buy them. We furnished one customer over seventy mantels, with tiles. This speaks for itself.
